MEET THE FOUNDERS

STRINGER HARRIS

Mr. Harris was raised, by his grandmother to believe that it was always better to give than to receive, a mantra that he sustained as he worked hard throughout high school, earning a football scholarship to Mississippi Valley State, where he studied Criminology and went on to found the TeamString in 2011. which is based in Hazelcrest Illinois, and operates for the safety of all children. Team String is responsible for recovering missing children and keeping them safe in their communities. Not only that, Stringer has also effectively advocated for justice for many Chicago residents wronged by law enforcement, including the family of security guard Jemel Roberson, and citizens out of state including the state of Minnesota and District Attorney Michael Freeman to ensure all four police officers involved in the death of George Floyd were prosecuted and charged correctly. Not only has he worked tirelessly to maintain the civility between the public and the police, he has also exemplified his ability to give back to the community through a plethora of volunteer activities. Helping the less fortunate is a matter of utmost importance for Stringer, who spends much of his time cleaning up neighborhoods, mowing lawns, delivering groceries to seniors, and providing free haircuts. He has worked tirelessly to ensure the missing and wayward children of the Chicago area are found, kept safe and grow up in an environment that will set them up for success. His own 8-year-old son is a constant inspiration for this endeavor, and he will continue to seek out those needing help and ensure the cares for those who cannot care for themselves. Whether this be through his unwavering dedication to community service, his foundation's actions influencing local legislatures, or his resolve to provide overwhelming solutions to overwhelming issues, Stringer will continue to fight for what is right and defend the most vulnerable members of society.
